Strophe 1
You said I’m wrong and right are you
Time changed your life and your point of view
Things aren’t easy and it’s hard to confess
You have to leave and for you it’s a mess.

Strophe 2:
You packed your bags and made a last call
Ten minutes later the bell rang in the hall
You went out the door your steps quick and long
A great hello then your laughter was gone

Refrain 1:
I just have only one wish to the skies above
Please my lord, make time change love

Strophe 3:
So you changed your life and left me all alone
Our kids wheeping, their hearts not made of stone
Now your wishes all come true,
Good luck for you babe, and leave me blue.

Refrain 2:
I just have only one wish to the skies above
Please my lord, make time change love
I just have only one wish to the skies above
Please my lord, stop money change love
